

This Star Schema has the fact table factSales which stores data on sales transactions. There are then three dimension tables that store data on stores, products and customers. All of these dimension tables have a one to many relationship with the factSales table. This enables Power BI to then filter and query sales data across different stores, customers, and products.